PRESSKIT

Jan. 2024

In 2003, French Dub Maker and saxophone player Grégory Benzekry (Dubamix) creates an original concept influenced by french dub scence as much as classical composers, protest songs, conscious rap or punk-rock music. He decides to produce electro-dub tracks where saxophone and samples interact with politcal speeches and revolutionnary songs. Spirit of revolt and bass culture join in a captivating show on heavy dub, UK steppa, roots reggae, electro-cumbia or drum'n'bass moods.

From 2011, Dubamix provided more than 200 shows around France and Europa, including festivals (No Logo (FR), Fusion (BE), Reggae Sun Ska (FR), Alta Felicita (IT), Seasplash (HR), ...), social centers (L'usine (CH), CSOA Gabrio, Askatasuna, Spartaco, ... (IT)) and supporting concerts (supporting strikes / supporting political prisonneers / supporting refugees / supporting self-managed centers / supporting trade unionist again repression, ...).

In 2022, Dubamix gathered of lot of guests, on his « Camarades » LP. Thus, Marina P (IT-FR), Lengualerta (MX), Krak in Dub (AR-FR), Daman (FR), Drowning Dog (US-IT), Mal Élevé (DE), Irracible (FR), ... A lot of them join Dubamix on a collective tour to spread this struggle message around Europa.
